

Lieutenant John Denis Poulton

There is a war grave in North Nibley cemetery commemorating Lieutenant John Denis Poulton of the South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canada, who died 10th April 1942.

Some research has been carried out and newspaper clippings and his name in the Canadian Book of Remembrance for the Second World War have been discovered.

Does anyone in the village have any more information?

LIEUTENANT J. D. POULTON

The local Telephone Office has been advised that Lieutenant J. D. Poulton was killed in a motorcycle accident "Somewhere in England" on Friday, April 10th. Lieutenant Poulton was employed as a Districtman with the Department of Telephones before enlisting with a South Saskatchewan Regiment in 1940, commencing his training in North Battleford with many others, including three of his intimate friends, Lieutenant Norman Cuthbert, Lieutenant Carl Fritz and Lieutenant Arthur Edmundson. They took further advanced military training in Winnipeg in June, going overseas in December 1940. Lieutenant Poulton leaves a wife and little daughter Peggy, who are at the present time at the Pacific Coast.
